

Federal Judicial Clerkship The U.S. Court of Federal Claims, Washington, D.C., has a law clerk position available to begin immediately, Summer 2003. GS12/13 pay level (depending on experience). Open until filled. Applicants must be law school graduates with outstanding writing and legal research skills. A strong preference will be given to those applicants in the top 25% of their graduating class. Substantial legal work experience (one year or more preferable) and a background in commercial litigation, government contracts, Fifth Amendment takings and/or tax issues are highly desirable. Please send resume, law school transcript, two writing samples exemplifying legal reasoning (consisting entirely of applicant's own work), and at least three references (including your current supervisor, if applicable) to: Terri Quintos, United States Court of Federal Claims, 717 Madison Place, N.W., Suite 602, Washington, D.C. 20005. Telephone inquiries will not be entertained.

